SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

25X1X

1. LI Li-san will form a Soviet-pattern state of all that part of North China which has been conquered by the Chinese Communists. Foreign business interests will be maintained at ports to provide an outlet for surplus produce and to prevent the southward movement of Chinese business.
2. For the remainder of China, MAO Tse-tung has been directed by the Soviets to work towards a coalition government which would include CHIANG Kai-shek (sic), the Kwangsi generals, and LI Chi-shen; this would be on a socialist basis.
3. MAO Tse-tung is to be deputy to LI Tsung-jen in the coalition. Object of the move is a covert disruption of the government and finally the establishment of a Communist regime, a process which is estimated to take two to five years.
4. Meanwhile, foreign trade would open up along the Yangtze River and would not be molested in major cities and coast ports.
